

Muskoka's Taboo Resort Introduces New Chef Chef Ivan Loubier Heightens European Flavors in Taboo's Kitchen

Gravenhurst, Muskoka (Summer 2010) – Taboo Resort Golf and Spa is pleased to welcome Chef Ivan Loubier to their exceptional culinary team. This bilingual chef has worked at some of the most in demand restaurants in Canada while receiving accolades for his fresh perspective and outstanding creations. Chef Ivan brings to Taboo his high standards for food quality and expertise in preparing authentic French cuisine. As the new chef, he will work alongside Taboo's culinary team to develop exciting dishes and heighten guest's dining experience with spectacular food presentation.

Prior to Taboo Resort, he held the title of sous-chef at Batifole, one of Toronto's finest french restaurants. He was also the Saucier (or chef de partie) for Vertical Restaurant, Toronto; Habitat Lounge, Toronto; Didier Restaurant, Toronto; and Howe Sound Inn, Squamish, B.C.

Taboo Resort is located in the heart of Gravenhurst and is a comfortable ninety-minutes drive from Toronto. Taboo Resort is exclusive (in Ontario) to being a member of the prestigious Preferred Golf Club which offers its membership VIP access to first-class golf courses throughout North America. While the name Taboo is internationally known for its outstanding conference facilities, world-class golf and indulgent spa treatments, this ultimate resort also provides an unparalleled family experience with unique activities, taste and luxury.
